Art bus unveiling postponed, rescheduled to Monday, Dec. 11

Unveiling event featuring Benjamin Gardner's work at Drake University postponed due to death of Paul Morrison

The Des Moines Area Regional Transit Authority (DART), the Greater Des Moines Public Art Foundation and Drake University have postponed the event to unveil the latest installment of the art bus series. The event was scheduled to be held at 11 a.m. in the Olmsted Center on Drake University's campus on Wednesday, Dec. 6. Due to the passing of longtime Drake icon, Paul Morrison, this event has been postponed to Monday, Dec. 11 at 11 a.m.

Twice a year, the Greater Des Moines Public Art Foundation chooses a design and an artist's work is used to wrap a DART bus. The latest bus is the seventh in the series, and will feature artwork by Benjamin Gardner, associate professor and department chair of art and design at Drake University.

DART, the Greater Des Moines Public Art Foundation, Drake University and Mr. Gardner will be speaking at a short ceremony in the Olmsted Center at Drake University. Following the remarks, attendees will be welcomed to view the unveiling of the bus in the parking lot adjacent to the Olmsted Center.

Media is invited to attend the rescheduled unveiling, details for the event are as follows:

When: Monday, Dec. 11, 2017 at 11 a.m.

Where: Pomerantz Stage of the Olmsted Center, Drake University Campus, 2875 University Avenue, Des Moines

About the Greater Des Moines Public Art Foundation: The Greater Des Moines Public Art Foundation, established in 2004, recognizes that art belongs not just in galleries and museums, but also in streetscapes, parks, buildings and infrastructures of a thriving community. Dedicated to envisioning, developing, advancing and promoting public art projects, the Public Art Foundation collaborates with local entities and artists to engage, inspire and enrich the lives of residents and visitors to the community. The goal is to increase awareness of our community as a world-class destination for public art. For more information about the Public Art Foundation, visit www.dsmpublicartfoundation.org.

About DART: The Des Moines Area Regional Transit Authority (DART) is the public transportation provider in and around Polk County. DART operates a family of transportation services that connects thousands of people every day to jobs, school, medical appointments, entertainment and more. For more information about DART services, schedules, route changes, or directions to the nearest DART stop, visit the website at www.ridedart.com or call 515-283-8100.

About Drake University: Drake University is a midsize, private university in Des Moines, Iowa, enrolling more than 3,300 undergraduate and 1,700 graduate students from 40 states and approximately 40 countries. Students choose from over 70 majors, minors, and concentrations and 20 graduate degrees offered through six colleges and schools. Drake students, faculty, and staff take advantage of the wealth of cultural, recreational, and business opportunities found in Iowa's capital city. In return, Drake enriches the city through its own cultural offerings, considerable economic impact, and many service-learning endeavors, which channel the talent and energy of the Drake students toward meeting the needs of the community.
